Although the emotion that is enlightening there are some personal experiences to be had during this emergency. Even foreigners who did not attend the funeral of their parents realized the importance of the country.
 The people of the city got to know the village, the man understood its limitations, most importantly, the health department of India understood the limits, the police understood the rights, everyone understood the sanitation and value of the man, you understood the house and the game. Childhood memories are revived. The domain art has gone out in the house today.

Due to the closure of transport, industries, mines, factories, pollution has decreased, we listening to the whistle. Also the murder rate of suicide, rape, accidents has dropped to zero.

This was one side. Thousands of hands have come forward to help Corona.
