Detail Report:

Shahid Virpatni Laxmi Mahavidyalaya, Titave. Department of B.A. Mass Media organized guest lecture on 10th December 2021 on the occasion of Human Rights Day for the Human Rights and Media topic.

For this event one of the special and knowledgeable guest Mr. Matin Shaikh, Content Editor, Lokal News Network, Bangalore delivered lecture on "Human Rights and Media." The lecture was conducted through online mode by using Google Meet. Event started with welcome and introductory speech by Mr. Digvijay kumbhar. Then Mr. Shaikh started his graceful and informative presentation to all.

The outline of his lecture was, "10th of December is observed as Human Rights Day every year to commemorate the day the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) in 1948. It marks a massive milestone in the advancement of humanitarianism. The UDHR proclaimed the rights which every human being is inherently entitled to. It is not dependent on race, color, religion, language, or sex."

"Media's new role today is reporting, analysing and commenting. It faces a challenge in playing the role in protecting human rights in the world. While playing this new role, there is risk of its misuse. For that self-regulation is the need of the hour. Journalists should set 'Lakshman Rekha' while reporting human rights violations. The main aim before the journalists should be to give facts but not in a manner and with the purpose to create sensation and to arouse the sentiments of the people. Projection and language should be decent and civilized. Journalists should not add insult to inquiry. Media should refrain from giving statements and pictures that are flaring. Since media is the mirror of the society, care should be taken that the mirror is not hazy. While reporting such violation media should not get influenced by authorities. It should look deep into the problem and provide solutions. Mere reporting of the facts is not enough. It should give reasons of the problem and the nature of the violations and then give solutions. Press has a sacred duty to focus human rights violations and then measures for protecting them." He explained.

The session was concluded by vote of thanks by Miss. Divya Kamble (T.Y. B.A. M.M.). Anchoring was done by Miss. Tejaswini Parabkar (T.Y. B.A. M.M.). Total 30 students and faculties of our college were participated in this guest lecture.
