Detail Report:

Shahid Virpatni Laxmi Mahavidyalaya, Titave, Department of Computer science organized seminar on 6 February 2023 related to Seminar on "Entrepreneurial Creativity Leads to Innovation".

For this event one of the special and knowledgeable guest Mr. Vaidya Amit Suresh, Assistant Professor, KIT (Autonomous) College of Engineering, Kolhapur delivered seminar on "Entrepreneurial Creativity Leads to Innovation". Mr. Amit Vaidya began the lecture with the essence and meaning of the term 'Creativity'. He conducted an interactive session and students seem to be keen to clear their concept and understanding of the term innovation. He talked about the mistakes done by global business magnate, where could they have reached in the absence of such mistakes.

He discussed various startups in India in the last decade. He highlighted the business policies Opted by them and their success rate. Launching a startup with an innovative idea needs to be supported by a strong business policy, lest it can be disastrous, as is the case of Purnabramha. He discussed many such case studies.

He also initiated that creativity and innovation are crucial to business success, especially in the everchanging and uncertain world we live in today. While creativity is the ability to produce new and unique ideas, innovation is the execution of that creative idea. When properly fostered, creativity and innovation create inventive problem solving for one's business. He initiated students to think of technological innovate on which can solve day-to-day problems and make life more convenient for all. He tried to convince the students to be more active and observe carefully, which would help them to identify problems persisting in the society to conceive their own innovative ideas for their own startups.

He defined sustainability in technical and general, both the terms and stated many live cases which left a strong inscription on the student's brain for their career perusal. Mr. Sagar Shetage, Asst. Professor, Computer Science gave vote of thanks and expressed gratitude towards the guest for giving his valuable time to the students. Mr.S.A.Chavan, Assistant Professor, Computer Science coordinated for the event to be a success. Mr. Amit Vaidya answered all the queries raised by students. The guest lecture was highly inventive, inspiring, informative and interactive for all the students. Total 140 students and faculties of our college were participated in this guest lecture.
