Detail Report:

B.R. Ambedkar, popularly known as Babasaheb Ambedkar, was an economist, politician, and social reformer who fought for the rights of the Dalit community who were considered as untouchables back in the day (they are still considered untouchables in certain parts of the country). A principal architect of the Constitution of India, Ambedkar also advocated for women's rights and labours' rights. Recognised as the first Law and Justice Minister of Independent India, Ambedkar's contribution to construct the entire concept of Republic of India is immense. To honour his contribution and service to the country, his birthday is celebrated every year on the 14th of April.

On this occasion Dr. Ambedkar's Photo Pujan Ceremony had been arranged to mark the 130th birth anniversary of them with presence of faculty members as well as with following all Covid 19 safety Rules.
