Detail Report:

On September, 15, 2022 BAMB students visited to Abdullat (Ichalkaranji) to cover meeting of Movement of Positivity. The students of the department covered the meeting of Movement of Positivity, which was started by Dr. Dnyaneshwar Mulye, Ex-Secretary, Ministry of External Affairs, and Member of National Human Rights Delhi.

In order to understand the content of the movement of positivity, information was taken from its various officials and participants. On this occasion, the students got the opportunity to get information freely about the background of starting the movement and the response of the people to it. One could see how the meetings of big organizations are, the protocols for the same. This visit was organized to experience the way of asking questions while interviewing different people, the different opinions expressed by the experts.

10 college students was present to visit. Mr. Vaibhav Kumbhar, Mrs. Tejaswini Parbkar was present.
